Tatenokawa Junmai Daiginjo Shuryu

楯野川 純米大吟醸 主流

The tremendous nose on this superb Daiginjo is a vast array of watermelon, strawberry, banana, vanilla, and steamed koji (sweet) rice. This sake is simply a flavor rush with an ending of hush.

FUINSHU - 封印酒 -

Smooth Type

(Fresh and delicate aroma. The lightest and simplest)

Tsukasabotan FUINSHU

司牡丹 封印酒 純米吟醸

"Great Plan" is one of those sakes that break the mold. It's quite a dry brew, but doesn't have the typical sharp, staccato profile of a dry sake. Rather it drinks clean and round and provides a great example of a shimmering sake. The nose is collection of aromas from marshmallow and cream to apple and plums. Hints of cherries and caramel don't arrive until the dead-stop finish.
